For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh: (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;) —2Cor. 10:3,4

We are so thrilled with all that God is doing in our lives. Serving in the ministry is a life like no other. Living a life of faith is not as complicated as the devil would like for us to believe. There is no doubt about some difficult days, but leaning on Jesus, just makes the journey sweeter as we go!

We have been so busy this summer with traveling and ministering to many churches and people along the way. God has been so faithful to help us with so many endeavors. We finished up in July with our last Camp meeting of this year and towards the end of June were able to purchase 2 new tires. We are so grateful for God getting them installed for free! All we had to do was buy the tires. He is so prompt to see that our needs are met. It was so good to be able to travel to Texas and then back to eastern NC on new tires. We have had one tire blow at 2:30 in the morning on the interstate and that is no fun at all! We have spent most of this qtr out west ministering to the needs of God's people and spreading the Gospel through the country from Nebraska to Wyoming to Montana and back down to Colorado and then back to Arkansas. We just have returned as of the writing of this newsletter. We so enjoyed seeing God work in His people's lives and it is so fulfilling when a pastor tells us he is so glad we came.

Before we left out, our jacks on the bus stopped working. We weren't sure what to do or how to go about getting them fixed but it seemed our heart & mind was being directed to go to Iowa where the manufacturer is located. The plant is located 4 hrs north of where we were going through in Missouri so we made it a stop on our way. After getting there, it was evident why we were there. There was an unusual interest in me to go through the plant and see how the jacks were made & the plant manager encouraged me to walk around and talk to the workers. It was very soon that I began to witness to one of the workers and gave him the gospel. Once that was completed, they found a loose wire in the control box and fixed in about 5 mins. The Lord was very clear to us as to why we were there. It wasn't to fix a jack, but to win the heart of a worker and get the gospel to him. He was very proud of his job and of his work and all I had to do was tell him what a great job he was doing and then I could share why I was there. We soon moved on and got to our next scheduled stop in Kansas City Mo. We were blessed to help in a missions mtg in Neb. & then move on to Wy & then up to Mt. We were able to do some of the outreach with a local church in Colorado and after spending Sunday with them, we headed back towards home stopping in Ark. to one last church. God saved a man during the service who came in looking for God! Hallelujah what a Great God we have!

We have many strong holds which get engrained in us from our youth. A strong hold is defined as a fortress or something to make firm. These strong holds come from our environment and those around us who teach us. Our way of thinking can be full of strong holds. In our carnal nature, strong holds, or fortresses are built by experiences and events in our lives. Someone who has trauma in their past will build strong holds to protect themselves. Strong holds also deem how we perceive those around us, as to their intentions toward us. Strong holds also develop preconceived ideas about others, sometimes more often than not, causing us to draw premature conclusions. What a blessing to know that we don't have to be subject to our own thinking. Our Lord wants to develop right thinking in every one of us. Our mind is the battlefield, or playground, whichever applies, that our enemy the devil uses against us. He knows that if our thinking is wrong, then we will be wrong. That's why we need to let His mind be in us. A fortress can only be torn down by one who is greater than the fortress. Jesus said, "When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace: But when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils.-Lk. 11:21, 22 Jesus can be that Strong Man for us to tear down the strong holds. If He is in place, there is no stronger than He.
