DECEMBER 5, 2025

Merry Christmas to all of our supporting churches and brethren. We hope you all have a wonderful, glorious Christmas with our Lord. Jesus is the Reason for the Season!

Hallelujah, what a Savior! It's so wonderful to be a Christian in these days we're living. We have had a super busy year in 2025, and to God be the glory. We are so very thankful for all He has done in these last several weeks. God certainly is faithful to say the least. If He ever presses our hearts to go somewhere or do something, He will always see us through.

We had a great time traveling out to Montana and Wyoming and ended up in Colorado and back to Arkansas helping churches and pastors all along the way. We got to do some outreach in Monument, Col. with the Victory Baptist church. We got to make contact with several folks and get the gospel out in a heavy populated area. We have been so blessed to have traveling grace with all the miles we have been. God has been keeping the bus running and in order with minimal repairs for these last few months. After replacing 6 tires, we were ready to hit the road last August. Now, we're quickly approaching 200,000 miles on the bus—Hallelujah!

We have also been blessed to be able to get into churches weekly for revivals since our last newsletter. God has been moving in most all of the churches with all the pastors noting God's movement in their congregations. It is such a wonderful thing to see God move and fill altars when we do get to preach revivals. During this time, we have also seen several come to Christ. We were privileged to get to hold an outdoor service last month in Sylvania Ga. where a young man in his 20's give his life to the Lord. We are so very grateful for all God is doing in these days.

The road life gets a bit weary at times and there's never enough time at home, but when God moves in a service and folks come and say they got some long needed help or a pastor comes and says God has really helped he & his church, then it's worth every mile we travel. God is too good for us to complain, that is for certain! We are at the place now that we are doing a lot of scheduling back to the same churches for the next year. A wise pastor once said to me that if an evangelist makes a connection with his people, a wise pastor will keep using him as long as his folks are getting help. With human nature as it is, and we all deal with it, the first meeting we have in a church is often getting past the newness, getting to know each other and building confidence for one another. By the next meeting, we can have all that behind us, there's less distractions, and God can begin to get done what He wants to do. We have learned that churches are as different as the people who make them up & we don't try to fit them into a certain mold. There's no "one size fits all" (no compromising scripture of course). I am so glad God made me different than my brethren but we can still hold to the same KJV bible word of God. But God at the same time allows for personality differences within the brethren—Just be a Christian.

PRAYER REQUESTS.....

- Please continue to pray for revival in our land. It seems as though God is hearing prayers
- Please pray for our family as we come under severe attack from the devil. He is raging more today than ever and we cannot make it without your prayers.
- Pray for James's dad who is in the later stages of Alzheimer's disease.
- Pray for guidance for direction for God's will for our lives, as it is so very important to us.
- Pray for continued financial help to pay for the costs of ministry. —God is still good!

Thank you to all who have supported us. Your support is invaluable to us, especially your prayers.

Please don't stop praying for us!

Consumed by Him, Used of Him

If I live my life to be used of my Lord, and I lose sight of Him, then living my life is really not about Jesus, but more about me. But if I will live my life to know Him, then my life will be consumed and used up by Him.

Mt. 11:28,29 Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

1Cor. 6:19,20 What? Know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

I used to focus so much on putting myself in a position so God could use me that that became my focus. After some failures and much personal reflection, I found myself looking more at me than at Him. Of course we are supposed to examine ourselves, but our focus is always supposed to be on Jesus, our Lord. Focusing on myself so much that I lose sight of Him, all the joy of serving goes right out of my life. Soon, discouragement sets in and I begin to wonder why I can't ever seem to "get it right". It occurred to me one day that if I would just focus on loving Him and be consumed by Him, all the pieces to the puzzle begin to fall in place. It is ALWAYS just about Jesus!
